Re: Transglobe Shipping Co. Ltd. v. Natural Resources Pte. Ltd.
Docket No. 07 Civ. 8158 (PKC)
United States District Court, Southern District of New York

Dear Hon. Judge Castel:

We represent the Plaintiff, Transglobe Shipping Co. Ltd., in the above referenced lawsuit. As per your Honor's Order dated November 13, 2007 an initial pretrial conference in this case had been adjourned to today at 12:15 p.m. While I had entered the date in my computer calendar as soon as I received the Order our office recently upgraded its computers and it appears that the date did not transfer to the new computer calendar. Accordingly, I sincerely apologize for not attending today's conference.

Since our report of November 12, 2007 Plaintiff has been electronically serving the process of maritime attachment and garnishment on various banks on a daily basis. However, to date, Plaintiff has not restrained any property of the Defendant nor has Defendant filed an appearance in this action. We shall take instructions from our client if they would like us to continue the daily service on the banks or discontinue this action without prejudice. In the circumstances, we respectfully request your Honor to grant us 30 days to discuss this matter with the Plaintiff and revert to you with our report.

We very much appreciate the Court's consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
